

Diversified education in Singapore

Post Date : 2018-9-6

Singapore education can be that excellent is because of its own unique educational characteristics, focusing on details and people oriented, providing a self-expression space for every child. So they can grow independently, can find out and maximise its own advantages.

In addition, Singapore education also focuses on creative thinking. It's education purpose is to create a relaxed educational environment, students are expected to experience the joy of learning and collide with new ideas in discussion.